i guess you can add liar and anti-semite to your resume as well... LOL!!!

Adam:

Your cowardice and self-loathing has NOTHING to do with your blood or heritage. Eli Weisel described how Jews like you ridiculed Moshe the Beadle. You should read the book sometime. Those who do not understand history are condemned to repeat it.

FYI, my wife is a Polish Jew. Dozens of her aunts and uncles were among the exterminated. My mother and her family left Germany in 1932 after enduring the hatred and attacks that came with their refusal to join the Nazi Party. You've simply replaced the epithet "Jew-lover" with denialist. Alinskyite slurs work well on everyone except those who, like me, are accustomed to being hated by felons, whores and assorted lowlifes. As a reporter for The Street, you wouldn't understand quaint virtues like intellectual honesty or courage.

In many ways, the intimidation, threats and hatred my family suffered is not unlike the kind of intimidation and threats that have compromised your ethical responsibility as a journalist. While I'm concerned when any journalist, doctor or university professor endures the kind of threats and intimidation that prevents you from being a real journalist, I'm disgusted by those who engage in the hatred for self-preservation. The least you could do is explain WHY you're terrified so that I can protect others. Until then, it'll be hard to think of you as anything more than a pathetic excuse of a man.

If you were honest, you would explain what terrifies you so. Until then, you'll never be the journalist that Mr. Michael (or even Jon Stewart) proves himself to be.
